

Outdoor & Live Family Fun @ the Moore Free Library in July & August

Summer Reading

Make your own reading log or pick one up at the library. Write down the title & author of every book you read and one thing you learned from the book. There will prizes and certificates for summer reading!

“Imagine Your Story” Reading and Activity Tuesdays @ 10:30 AM with Courtney (7/7 – 8/11)

Join Courtney for fun stories and fables from around the world and do a craft or movement activity, too!  Library will be open for families, right afterwards

Family Yoga Wednesdays @ 10:30 AM with teachers from Newfane Village Yoga (7/1 – 8/12)

This is fun and do-able for every body and every age. No experience or equipment required. Try it, you might like it. Grandparents can do it!

Story Time with baby Michael and his dad Vic Thursdays @ 10:30 – 11:00 AM (year round)

Songs, stories, cute baby time. Can't make it to the library lawn? These are also livestreamed on Facebook and can be viewed later.

Story Walk 24/7 on the Lawn (July & August)

Walk your way through a picture book on the library lawn. Each page is 12 feet apart. Get some exercise while reading a book. Different stories each month.

Thank you WW Building Supplies for constructing this!

“Imagine Your Story” Concert with Stephen Coronella, Thursday August 6 @ 11:00 AM

Stephen will sing songs and spin stories of legendary characters to inspire and spark the imagination. He will be performing with guitar, flutes, hammer dulcimer and drums. From Johnny Appleseed to King Arthur, Robin Hood to Harriet Tubman: high energy, laugh filled and full of surprises!

All events are free and open to the public
All activities will be outdoors, rain or shine, social distancing required
