

Moore Free Library ~ August 2020

~ all programming will be outdoors -- byo chair or use MFL's ~ stay 6 ft apart ~

Ongoing Programs

- Every day, 24/7 Outdoor Story Walk: "Sleep Tight Farm" by Eugenie Doyle. Read a story while walking on the lovely, spacious, distant library lawn. It's fun!
- Every Thursday
10:30 - 11:00 AM Story Time. Join us outside or on Facebook Live for stories, songs and more. Geared towards age 0-5, older kids are welcome. Great way to meet other parents of young children.
- Every Friday
9:30AM-12:00PM Self-guided Art Group. All mediums and levels of art experience welcome. Please contact Alice Freeman (drimbob45@gmail.com or 365-7542 before attending).
- All month Art Show in the Crowell Gallery: "Limitless" oil paintings by Gianna Robinson. The artist hopes her paintings will bring peace, love, expansiveness and remind the viewer of their own special times and places. There will be an artist reception at noon, August 1st, outside the gallery.

Special Events

- Wednesdays
7-8:30 PM What the US Constitution Offers Us. Constitution Wrangler Meg Mott will convene salon-style discussions of the 1st, 2nd, 9th, and 10th amendments. These will happen on Thursdays if it rains on Wednesdays.
- Saturdays
8/8 + 8/15
2:30 - 3:30 PM Drop-in Computer Classes
Have you always wanted to learn how to use a computer? Now's the time, drop in to the library lawn and learn the basics on the library's computers. Funded by a grant from "Grow With Google". If you can't make it on Saturdays, call the library for a one-on-one appointment.
- Sat. 8/8
10:30 AM- 1 Restorative Community Justice of Southern Vermont will be working on what it takes to facilitate a conflict resolution circle, exploring how to get full communication between parties, how to remain multi-partial and how to hold a safe space to enable healing and resolution. Co-facilitators for the training will be Laurie Rabut and Dan DeWalt, both of RCJSVT. Please register in advance if you can (email rcjsvt@gmail.com)
- Tues 8/4, 8/11
FOR KIDS/FAMS
10:30 AM "Imagine Your Story" Reading and Activity. Read a folktale or fable from around the world and participate in a fun activity -- all materials provided, kids of all ages welcome. The library will be open right after these activities for family browsing.
- Weds 8/5, 8/12
FOR KIDS/FAMS
10:30 -- 11:15 AM Family (all ages) Yoga. Join us outside for a fun way to move and learn with teachers from Newfane's Village Yoga. No prior yoga experience needed. Try it, you might love it!
- Thursday
8/6 @ 11 AM Summer Reading Celebration & Concert. Musician/Storyteller Stephen Coronella will sing songs and spin tales of legendary characters to inspire and spark the imagination. He will be performing with guitar, flutes, hammer dulcimer and drums. From Johnny Appleseed to King Arthur, Robin Hood to Harriet Tubman, high energy, laugh-filled and full of surprises. Bagged lunch will be provided, thanks to Newfane Church.
- Sat Aug 15
11 AM-12:30 PM Visit with State Rep. Emily Long
Chat with Rep. Long about what's on your mind and learn about what the VT legislature is doing, has done, and plans to do. All voters in Windham-5 are welcome (Marlboro, Townshend, Newfane).
- Sat. Aug 22 @ 11 Preserving the Harvest with Celeste Longacre. Learn how to freeze veggies and berries, how to build a root cellar and how to prepare beets, carrots and potatoes to keep. Learn how to prepare winter squash and onions to keep for the entire winter. Plus a few of the basics of canning and pickles will be made

Moore Free Library, 23 West Street, Newfane, VT MooreFreeLibrary.org (802) 365-7948

All events are free & open to the public & outside

bring a chair or use a library chair ~ remember to keep your distance ~ 6 ft away from non-householders